LIBERALS UNITED IN CLEAN-CUT ORGANIZATION

C. J. V. Spratt and Liberal Candidates Refute Conservative Criticisms at Meeting at South Park School

Reading from a Conservative "in-an advertisement that the party was "out to smash the Liberal machine," C. J. V. Spratt, president of the Victoria Liberal Association, last night told an interested gathering at South Park school that he knew of no such machine existing in the city of Victoria.

"If there is such a machine existing in the city of Victoria I am not aware of it. We have a clean cut Liberal Association, but there is a big difference between an association and a machine, and I challenge any of the Conservative speakers to prove the insinuations of graft which are embodied in their terms," he went on.

Criticizing Reginald Hayward for his assertions on the platform that "a man couldn't get a job unless he belonged to the Liberal Party," Mr. Spratt refused the suggestion and recoiled "the time, not so many years back, when these same gentlemen had a machine in which you had to pay, and no Liberal could get a job, either."

It would be better for the Conservative Party if they gave their attention to the presentation of a sound policy instead of wasting their time in groundless criticism, in the opinion of Mr. Spratt.

"The Conservatives are appealing to the electorate on platitudes only. Their manifesto is full of ifs. But the Liberal Party is no 'if' party. They have demonstrated to you a same, sound and efficient platform during the present administration, with every evidence of a continuation of that prosperity under the same efficient management."

Dr. Tolmie had been out of the Province for so long that he had lost touch, and when faced with the necessity of preparing a platform at the last minute had "grabbed our book and used it as propaganda," according to the speaker.

A BUSINESS TALK

Mark Graham in advancing his plea for the support of the Liberal Government at the polls on July 18 suggested that the electors should ask themselves a series of questions before voting. The business man should ask himself whether his business had prospered under the Liberal administration, and if there were good reason to believe that it would prosper and expand within the next few years.

PLANE RESCUES MAN FROM ICE

Swedish Airman Takes Fellow Aviator From Noble Camp in Arctic

Stockholm, July 6.—The chief of the Swedish rescue mission telegraphed from Spitzbergen to-day that Lieut. Lundborg, Swedish airman, had been rescued from the ice near Fyorn Island. Lieut. Lundborg was marooned when his plane overturned in an attempt to take off survivors of the last North Pole dirigible Italia.

The Swedish War Department received a message from the base ship Quest that the rescue had been made by the Swedish flier. The rescue mission was made of the five members of the Italia's crew who were stranded on the ice with Lundborg.

After taking off General Umberto Nobile from the ice on June 28, Lieut. Lundborg returned to pick up the other five men who had been stranded since the Italia crashed on May 25. He intended to take off the motor chief of the last dirigible, whose leg was broken. As he landed on the ice the plane overturned and the skis were smashed. Unable to take off, Lieut. Lundborg joined those who were awaiting rescue on the ice.

NO TRACE OF AMUNDSEN

A dispatch from King's Bay said a Swedish aeroplane had searched along the eastern and southern coasts of Northeast Land without finding any trace of either Capt. Roald Amundsen or the five men missing with him and their plane.

EX-B.C. MAN IS HELD IN GERMANY

Former Prince Rupert Citizen Named Eckhoff Wounded By Two Germans

Berlin, July 6.—The mysterious wounding of a Canadian named Eckhoff by two men who fired at him with revolvers at Maseritz some days ago has been followed by the arrest of the wounded man.

The German police took him into custody on his discharge from a hospital yesterday, following a thorough inquiry into the affair.

Eckhoff is stated formerly to have conducted a hotel and physical culture establishment at Prince Rupert, B.C.

CONSERVATIVES TRY VAINLY TO HALT MATHESON

Maynard and Independent Nominee Clash in Duel Over Beer Prices

Threat of Police Intervention Follows Lively Battle in West

Victoria Conservatives, who are alarmed at the independent Conservative candidature of Capt. R. P. Matheson, tried unsuccessfully to demolish his campaign in Victoria West last night in the most spirited meeting of the present election fight.

Before Capt. Matheson had proceeded far with his denunciation of former Victoria members of the Legislature, for serving special interests at the expense of the public, Harry Maynard, prominent Esquimalt Conservative, started a noisy altercation with the speaker which occupied most of the remainder of the evening.

CHALLENGES FLY

Attacking Capt. Matheson for calling himself a Conservative, when he was running as an Independent, Mr. Maynard was soon calling another inter-rupter a liar and informing the gathering that Capt. Matheson was crazy.

This launched the meeting into a discussion of prices received by Mr. Maynard when he sells his beer to the Government, Capt. Matheson declaring he would secure a profit of ninety per cent, and Mr. Maynard asserting he only made ten per cent.

When Mr. Maynard was accused of backing the independent candidature of A. Loewenstein in the last provincial election, Mr. Maynard shouted that the man who made this allegation was a liar, and challenged "to take that up right now."

In the end H. R. Brown, chairman, had to threaten to have Mr. Maynard removed by a policeman who was stationed outside the door, but he left of his own accord.

PLANE DEATH STILL UNSOLVED

Suicide Theory to Explain A. Loewenstein's Disappearance Gains Strength

Paris, July 6.—Captain Alfred Loewenstein, regarded as the mystery man of European finance, to-day proved to be a more mysterious figure in death.

Four theories regarding his fatal plunge from his private aeroplane while crossing the English Channel from England to France were advanced—accident, crime, suicide or hoax.

There was a growing belief the death was accidental. Theory of a crime, while not impossible, was considered more and more improbable. A hoax seemed most unlikely.

In many financial circles throughout the world the theory of suicide was strongly urged. It was pointed out that during the last month many of the stocks in which the Belgian magnate was interested had suffered severe reverses.

WILD REPORTS

In Paris, London, Brussels and Berlin the stock exchanges reacted quickly.

MUMMIES OF STONE AGE ARE FOUND IN ALEUTIANS

New York, July 6.—Harold McCracken, head of an expedition of the American Museum of Natural History to the Aleutian Islands, off the Alaska coast, in a special dispatch to The New York Times to-day says the expedition believes it has found mummified remains of Stone Age men on an isolated island.

Four mummified bodies, three adults and one infant, said the dispatch, were found on the summit of an almost inaccessible island along with their clothing, domestic articles, hunting weapons and other paraphernalia that went with the burial of the early barbarians.

MONGOLIAN INFLUENCE

The burial tomb bore evidence of Mongolian influence, said the dispatch, but there was nothing to indicate contact with ancient or modern civilizations.

The vault was made of well shaped and morticed drift logs, held together by bone nails, and had been wedged in a rock crevice on an almost unscalable peak. The lining of the vault was of cured otter skins.

TOLMIE HEDGING ON LABOR POLICY WHITTAKER SAYS

Joint Saanich-Esquamalt Meeting Is Staged at Craigflower School

Dr. Tolmie in his Conservative platform Manifesto is hedging, Norman Whittaker pointed out at last night's joint meeting in the Craigflower school in the interests of himself as a candidate in Saanich and of Mary Ellen Smith, Liberal candidate in Esquimalt.

Mrs. Smith was unable to get back in time from her West Coast speaking trip.

Mr. Whittaker read from the Tolmie manifesto the Conservative stand on labor legislation, regarding which Dr. Tolmie dares to say nothing more definite than that he would favor such labor legislation only to the extent that "his experience shows advisable."

"What is the reason for all this regarding labor legislation on the part of Dr. Tolmie?" Mr. Whittaker asked.

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S GROWTH

Mr. Whittaker, dealing with the advance of British Columbia, pointed out that in the last ten years the population has increased by thirty per cent, which is a larger proportionate increase than shown by any other province in Canada.

BIG EXPLOSION RUINS THEATRE

Spokane, Wash., July 6.—An explosion, the cause of which has not been discovered, blew out the front of the Lyric Theatre here early to-day.

The blast could be heard for many blocks and a patrolman who was a short distance from the place barely escaped injury from flying glass, splintered wood and bricks which came hurtling to the sidewalk.

Police, investigating, said the place had been demolished inside. They could not determine whether dynamite or a bomb had exploded.

PREMIER MacLEAN TO-MORROW TO VISIT TERMINAL CITY

Vancouver, July 6.—Word has reached the city that Premier J. D. MacLean, who will address election meetings at Agassiz to-night and Mission Saturday evening, will drive into Vancouver Saturday morning to meet Hon. Dugald Donaghy, Minister of Finance, and Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Provincial Secretary.

A. L. Teetzel, Liberal campaign manager in this city, announced he would ask the Premier to come to Liberal headquarters on Hastings Street West where a short reception will be tendered him by Government supporters in this city.

Sinnott Resigns, Asking Hinchliffe to Explain $1,000 Bribe Allegation

Representing a powerful group of Victoria Conservatives who have split with the party organization here, T. Sinnott has resigned as first vice-president of the Conservative Association to support the independent candidature of Capt. R. P. Matheson in the present provincial election.

Mr. Sinnott, who is president of the influential McBride Club and leader of a large faction in the Conservative Party, announced his resignation when he spoke with Capt. Matheson in Stanley Hall, Victoria West, last night.

With the announcement of his resignation Mr. Sinnott made the startling revelation that Joshua Hinchliffe, Conservative candidate in Victoria, had informed a recent meeting of the McBride Club that a bribe of $1,000 had been offered to a member of the Legislature at a recent session. Mr. Sinnott demanded that Canon Hinchliffe state publicly to whom the bribe had been offered and whether it had been accepted or not.

"I would like Canon Hinchliffe to state publicly now who was the member who was offered the bribe, whether he accepted it, who made the offer, and what was the purpose of the bribe," Mr. Sinnott declared.

CANNOT BACK CANDIDATES

This revelation of Mr. Hinchliffe's charge followed the reading of the letter of resignation which Sinnott had written to F. C. Elliott, president of the Conservative Association, in referring as first vice-president. This letter ran as follows:

"President Conservative Association, Campbell Building, City:
"Dear Mr. Elliott:—I wish to tender my resignation as first vice-president of the Victoria Conservative Association."

The match was seven shots at 300 yards.

Sergeant G. G. McLennan of Charlottetown, a newcomer to Disley, led the Canadians in this match with a score of 33. Sergeant White of Toronto and Sergeant Livingston of Ottawa each made 32. Sergeant H. Regan of Victoria, 30, and Sergeant Reid of Toronto 29.

In the Conan Doyle service rifle match, seven shots were fired at 200 and 300 yards.

To-morrow the London Times and London Daily Mail competitions will be decided.

PRACTICE FOR CUPS

The Canadian team of eighteen soldier marksmen has been getting in some good practice for defence of the Kolapore Cup and Mackinnon Cup in team shoots on July 10 and 12, and for the King's Prize later next week.

Lieut. Bishop of Ottawa, Sergeant Emile of Toronto, and Lieut. Skinner, formerly of Fort William, to-day each won $5 in the daily sweepstakes at the 300-yard distance.

LITTLE JOE

THE COST OF MARRIAGE DEPENDS ON WHAT THE HUSBAND EARNS.

The vault itself was divided into two parts, in one of which was the body of a man, evidently of high standard. In the other were bodies of the other two adults and the child.

OTHER SKIN CLOTHING

The body of the adult king was clothed in other skins surrounding a shirt of bird skins, both elaborately decorated. Wrapped around the body was a cloth of skins of northern animals, surrounded by a layer of woven grass. The whole was enclosed in a parchment-like layer of sea lion intestine.

The other bodies were less elaborately dressed and are believed to be those of servants.

MAY CHANGE PLANS

When the exhibition set out it was expected to continue to Siberia and the islands of the Bering Sea in the search for the Stone Age man. The dispatch, which was relayed from Prince Rupert, B.C., did not indicate whether the rest of the voyage would be abandoned.

INQUIRY COUNSEL BLAMES MAYOR FOR SLACKENING OF VANCOUVER POLICE WORK

Summing Up Evidence Before Commissioner E. S. Lennie After Lengthy Investigation, A. H. MacNeill, K.C., Says Underworld Quickly Took Advantage of Situation Created by L. D. Taylor's Enunciation of "Open Town" Policy

Vancouver, July 6.—"Demoralization of the Vancouver police force is directly traceable to the enunciation by Mayor L. D. Taylor of an 'open town' policy," A. H. MacNeill, K.C., commissioner counsel, declared at this morning's session of the Vancouver police inquiry, when he began his detailed consideration of the evidence.

In starting his summing up before Commissioner R. S. Lennie yesterday afternoon, he stated there appeared to be evidence which would warrant the commissioner reporting adversely on Mayor Taylor, Chief of Police H. W. Long, Inspector John Jackson, and Detective-Sergeant George McLaughlin.

The underworld, Mr. MacNeill declared this morning, had not been slow to take advantage of the situation created by the mayor's "open town" attitude. Since Mayor, alleged "king of the gamblers," "that clever diplomat," had not hesitated to take advantage, counsel said, for he had intruded himself to the mayor and visited him frequently at the Granville Mansions, where the mayor resided.

Start From Coast Point Where They Came Down; Weather Forces Them Back

Pernambuco, Brazil, July 6.—Captain Arturo Ferrarin and Major Carlo del Prete, Italian aviators, who yesterday completed a non-stop flight from Italy to Brazil, arrived at Port Natal by automobile from Natal this morning.

Port Natal is fifty miles north of here.

Rio de Janeiro, July 6.—Capt. A. Ferrarin and Major C. del Prete, the two Italian aviators credited with the longest non-stop plane flight, were forced back by bad weather to-day when they attempted to continue to Rio de Janeiro from Port Natal, where they landed last evening from Rome. They made their second landing at Duoro, about fifty miles north of Port Natal, which city is 150 miles north of Pernambuco.

LONGEST FLIGHT

The department stated that it was in the middle of negotiations for the sale of its plant at Port Alberni to Vancouver interests, which proposed to use it to establish a valuable shingle industry.

DEPRECIATES LOOSE TALK

Lieut.-Col. D. B. Martyn, Deputy Minister of Industries, deprecated criticism like that voiced by Mr. Pooley last night when speaking in Saanich, he declared there was no real intention of establishing a shingle mill at Port Renfrew, and that The Times article yesterday was merely a political stunt to aid Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, Liberal candidate in Esquimalt.

"Criticism of that kind does not assist the department in securing a deal which would be of great advantage to the Port Renfrew district," Colonel Martyn said. "We have been endeavoring to assist industry in the district for some time, and particularly to dispose of the plant held there by the Government, so that it may operate successfully, but we have been continually confronted with criticism of this sort."

MAKES FORMAL TENDER

W. D. Kennedy, head of the Kennedy Timber Company, which is negotiating for the purchase of the Port Renfrew plant, to-day showed The Times the formal bid which this concern has made for the Government property.

"Mr. Pooley's suggestion that I am in the pay of the Liberal Party is false," Mr. Kennedy said. "I am a Librarian, and I have no other business development there."

RENFREW MILL SCHEME NEARS CONSUMMATION

Pooley's Tale of Political "Stunt" Proves Groundless; Wild Statements Depreciated

Statements published in this newspaper yesterday concerning the proposed establishment of a shingle mill at Port Renfrew were completely substantiated by the British Columbia Department of Industries to-day, after H. B. Pooley, Esq., Minister of Industries, had declared them false and intended only for political purposes.

The department stated that it was in the middle of negotiations for the sale of its plant at Port Alberni to Vancouver interests, which proposed to use it to establish a valuable shingle industry.

AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT NOT ASKED TO PRESS FOR DUMP DUTY

While Conservative Party speakers and Victoria housewife owners are blaming the lack of federal dumping duties for the present demoralization of the prairie tomato market, it was stated at the Department of Agriculture here to-day that the growers have not applied to it for assistance in securing a dumping duty or in improving the situation otherwise.

No representations on the tomato situation have been made to the Department by the growers, it was stated. While the growers have not sought the Department's aid, Conservative speakers are holding the provincial authorities, who have nothing to do with tariffs, responsible for the present absence of a dumping duty. The Department's advice from prairie markets is to the effect that a dumping duty at this time would be of no material assistance to the B.C. tomato men, and that low prices prevailing are due to an over-production here, on the prairies themselves and in the United States.

TOMATOES ARE UNSOLD

The Victoria Co-operative Horticulture Association has given out information to show that its business has been demoralized this year through the importation of tomatoes into prairie markets from the United States. Records of the association were produced to show how many carloads of tomatoes could not be sold on the prairies because of United States importations. If a dumping duty had been enforced this year as last year this situation would not have developed, in the opinion of the association. Last year, with dumping duties in effect, there was no difficulty in disposing of the entire tomato crop grown here, it was stated.

Hon. Ian Mackenzie Scores Position of Conservatives On Future of the P.G.E.

Provincial Secretary, Speaking in North Vancouver, Says Dr. Tolmie's Party Has as One of Leaders, Hon. H. H. Stevens, Who Has Scheme to Build Another Railway to Displace P.G.E. in Peace River Traffic

Vancouver, July 6.—"Hon. H. H. Stevens is a competitor of the people of British Columbia in the railway business," declared Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Provincial Secretary, addressing a capacity audience in the Lonsdale Theatre, North Vancouver, last night.

"Mr. Stevens is not in this fight as a public man," said the speaker. "He is out to kill the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, in which the people of this Province have so much invested, and in the remote event of his political friends getting into office, he hopes to get a charter for his northern railway in return for his services."

A striking feature of the meeting was the association on the platform of three former Conservatives, Aldermen E. H. Bridgman, Reeve V. V. Vinson of West Vancouver and Mr. B. D. Davies, all of whom stated that in this election they placed the men and the issues above their old party affiliations.

A STUDY IN CONTRASTS

THE ELECTION CAMPAIGN PRESENTS an interesting study in contrasts. It will be admitted on all sides that the Government party is united and its candidates in the constituencies are not challenged by rivals from within their own ranks. On the other hand, the opposition party is openly dissiminated in many districts in some of which independent Conservatives are challenging its official candidates. This is notably the case in Victoria where the opposition ranks have been in turmoil through factional disputes for several years. The trouble arose from the determination of one element to drive from public life Mr. Bowser, who had held important posts in a Conservative government for a long time, was afterwards Premier and leader of the party, and is regarded by many as the ablest man in the opposition ranks.

The hostility to Mr. Bowser was due in part to the fear of some of the anti-Bowser element that the position members of the party would be able to nominate its own candidates by machine methods, with the result that two independent candidates are in the field in Victoria. There is no such division in the ranks of the party behind Hon. J. D. MacLean.

There also is a strong contrast between the campaign methods of the two parties. The Government speakers without exception are dealing with provincial problems in a constructive way. While meeting the criticism of their opponents it will be noticed that they are not resorting to petty personalities. Most of the opposition candidates have confined themselves to criticism without offering anything constructive. They are handicapped, of course, by the limitations of Dr. Tolmie's manifesto which is practically an endorsement of what the MacLean Government has been doing. Mr. Pooley's vocal indiscretions of course are notorious. A short time ago he declared that he would not take Dr. MacLean's word on anything politically and that the Premier must be "touched in the upper story." Yesterday evening he referred to Mrs. Smith, his opponent in Esquimalt, as "the old lady." It is fortunate for Mr. Pooley, who prides himself on being a gentleman and a sportsman, that he has such a complaisant leader as Dr. Tolmie, for if he were under the leadership of Mr. Bowser he would be put in cold storage. A realization of this no doubt accounts for his preference in leaders and it certainly explains much of his hostility to Mr. Bowser. And it should be recalled that Mr. Pooley was actually the leader of the opposition in the Legislature and would expect to be a prominent member of Dr. Tolmie's Cabinet if his party were returned to office.

Hence, Dr. Tolmie is handicapped by a disunited party, lack of policy and some lieutenants who simply cannot open their mouths in public without putting their feet in them. This in turn is one of the penalties resulting from the failure of the Doctor when he was elected leader of the party at Kamloops two years ago to leave the Federal field, take over the provincial leadership in fact as well as in name, familiarize himself with the problems of the Province so that he might develop a policy, enlist the co-operation of Mr. Bowser and his numerous admirers, and keep in the background those elements who seem to have taken possession of the party ship and are merrily driving it on the rocks. And they would handle the ship of state in the same way if they were given the chance.

THE SUCCESSFUL IMMIGRANT

YEARS AGO A YOUTH NAMED TURE Carlson came out to the United States from Sweden with his parents. In 1909, after he had grown up to young manhood, he crossed the border into Canada and took up 160 acres of land. Not having much capital he was compelled to begin farming in a small way; but, by perseverance and industry, he soon extended his operations, and in time was able to buy livestock and machinery from the proceeds of the sale of field crops. He continued to prosper, adding continually to his holdings, and today, while yet a comparatively young man, he owns 960 acres of fine farm land at Young, a flourishing agricultural community in central Saskatchewan.

In addition to his land Mr. Carlson owns a complete outfit of machinery, forty head of beef cattle, fifteen head of working horses, a comfortable modern house and excellent barns, sheds, and granaries, all free of encumbrance. He now has written to the Canadian National Railways Colonization Department to say that anyone who knows the rudiments of farming can do what he has done in Canada by being industrious and paying strict attention to business.

This is only one of thousands of cases of the success of the immigrant from the Old World; but accounts of their rise from small beginnings to a competence very seldom reach the newspapers. They usually are too busy to tell their story. It is not so with the grumbler and, unfortunately, more notice is taken of a complaint from one of his kind than anything one of the Carlson type might say.

ABSORBING OUR YOUTH

IN NEARLY ALL HIS SPEECHES throughout the Province Dr. Tolmie has been telling the electors about his plans for encouraging industry in an effort to make them believe that the present Government has been doing nothing in this regard. He charges that the youth of the Province are leaving it because there are no opportunities to keep them. Dr. Tolmie leaves the generality here. He gives neither fact nor figure. The following statistics relating to the number of apprentices who have entered our industries in the last few years, however, would appear to suggest that any supposed migration has been checked:

Year	Number of Apprentices
1924	898
1925	1,115
1926	1,281
1927	1,554

Surely these figures may be taken as a guarantee that in future our important industries in the Province will be in charge of our own native sons in a greater measure than they are at present. The Department of Industries, of course, is for the creation of new jobs.

THEY HAVE BEEN wild of late in their criticisms of the present Government's financial policies. They have concocted all sorts of fantastic arguments in their efforts to show that the public debt is more than it really is, how money has been spent recklessly, and how the public finances generally have been mismanaged.

It is not necessary to deal with all these charges as they stand; the voters of this Province are able to examine the whole situation for themselves. When they consider that British Columbia's securities fetch as high a price as those of the Dominion and higher than most of the Provinces they very naturally dispose of the charges for what they are worth. But when it comes to reckless financing the Conservative Government which went out of office in 1916 fairly takes the palm. Here is a little story in figures:

	Revenues of	Were to Provide for	Estimated Expenditures of	Or an Estimated Debit of
In 1912-13	$10,387,830.66	$16,270,001.09	$5,883,170.43
In 1913-14	10,326,088.06	17,838,266.11	7,512,181.05
In 1914-15	10,048,915.13	13,742,009.50	3,693,094.37
In 1915-16	7,094,615.13	11,163,056.11	4,128,440.98
In 1916-17	5,944,015.13	11,301,374.86	5,357,359.73

The above table will prove to most people that the former Government labored under chaotic conditions. Its failure to provide revenues to cover what was considered necessary expenditure is in itself an indictment as well as evidence of a policy that was bound to become ruinous to the credit of the Province. Here we see declining revenues with no effort to increase them, a policy which eventually earned for our bonds the title of "deficit bonds." It explains why in 1917 the best price at which British Columbia could borrow money was seven and one-half per cent. Compare that with 4.40 to-day.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

TOO BUSY TO BE LAZY

By Bruce Catton

Laqueness is the one besetting sin that a man taking his place in the world to-day must avoid. Dr. Philip Smead Bird tells members of the graduating class of Case School of Applied Science.

Men who are not willing to be active are out of tune with the universe," Dr. Bird declares. "Laqueness in any form will cripple the capacity of a human being to enlist in the service of his generation."

Laqueness, to date, has not exactly been a characteristic Canadian failing. There has been a tremendous amount of work to do in the Canadian West, and it has been, on the whole, rather well done.

Of late, however, we have been getting over the crest of the hill, so to speak, and stopping for breath. And, in this pause, some men have been wondering just what all the hurry and bustle are for. It has seemed, at times, as if we have missed something by our unremitting activity. Everlasting work does get the world's chores done, but does it give the worker himself the fullest and richest possible kind of life?

The answer seems to be that it does not. If a man could die in harness it wouldn't be so bad; but to nearly everyone there come moments of leisure, especially toward the end of life, and if one knows nothing but work these moments are apt to be pretty dreary. We do not know how to relax or play; the little, unimportant diversions that give life meaning and color are too often ignored. So we see a constant procession of successful Canadians going to Europe, looking wistfully at cities in Germany and France where men know how to make their leisure enrich them, and wondering vaguely why they are out of tune with such things.

Probably we won't remedy this condition at once. For a generation or so we will continue to shun laqueness as our forebears shunned gay clothes. We are, without knowing it, working for our children, not ourselves. This will not become a land of easy-going enjoyment in this era. That will come later.

The pioneers of the last century, who went thousands of miles to find new homes where their children could "have a chance," were not trying to make things easier for themselves. They looked to the future and saw the rolling prairie lands transformed to prosperous farms, where their descendants could enjoy those things that they themselves had denied. And the time to do this was not far off. The chief and the chief of existence—so that our children, in years to come, can have a fuller, more significant life than we now know.

TOLMIE HEDGING ON LABOR POLICY
WHITTAKER SAYS

Dealing with taxation reductions made by the Liberal Government, Mr. Whittaker explained that high taxation in British Columbia was due to the fact that "the Conservative Government up to 1916 had not been balancing its budget and its finances were in such bad shape that they could not borrow any more money from the bank."

Mr. Whittaker went on to detail the cuts in land, personal property, and other taxes since the Liberal Government came to power.

TAX REDUCTIONS
"As a result of the Liberal Government's policy," Mr. Whittaker stated, "the Province has been able to reduce its taxes in many instances."

It was pointed out that the Province has been able to reduce its taxes in many instances, and that the Liberal Government's policy has been to reduce taxes wherever possible.

1408 Douglas St.

PADLOCK MOVE IS MADE IN SEATTLE
Seattle, July 5.—Charging violations of the National Prohibition Act, the United States district attorney's office here yesterday filed a writ of habeas corpus in Federal court to padlock the Butler Hotel and Cafe, for the district attorney's office.

Built after the fire which destroyed most of Seattle's business section in 1889, the Butler was the leading hotel of Seattle until 1908. In recent years the Butler has been one of the most popular in the city, and a centre of night life. The eighty-story 200-room hotel, located in the lower business section at Second and James Streets, was the temporary home of many prominent visitors to Seattle during the city's earlier days.

The complaint, filed by Paul D. Coles, chief assistant district attorney, charges the place is a common nuisance and affidavits are offered that large numbers of salaried men of the city are frequent visitors.

The action is directed against John and Marie Savage, as proprietors, and Ralph Boyker, said to be an employee. A temporary restraining order was asked to close the hotel and prevent removal of any furnishings or equipment pending final proceedings.

R. L. Drury and Mrs. Drury returned on Saturday from a brief visit to the Sound, where Mr. Drury had gone on business.

Hon. A. E. McPhillips, Attorney-General, returned last evening from the mainland. He was there during the Dominion Day celebration.

C. B. Sward, inspector of fisheries, has gone to Lakeside River hatchery on the Skeena River.

The city council will probably get its supply of rock for the retaining wall at Dallas Road from a projecting rock near at hand to the work required.

The High School and teachers' examination is now in progress. It commenced in the High School building on Saturday, and will last about a week.

The Fraser River Cannery Association having decided to adhere to their wage scale of fifteen cents per fish during July, and fourteen cents during August, and have notified the Fishermen's Union accordingly.

Hatley Park Fete Netted $400 for Chapter's Funds

At a meeting of the Florence Nightingale Chapter, I.O.D.E., the reports of the conveners of the recent garden party at Hatley Park were read, showing that the affair had been most successful, close on to $400 being cleared for the chapter's funds.

The T.B. Ward of the Jubilee Hospital was again remembered with a gift of one dozen pyjamas, and ice cream is to be served weekly to the patients during the summer months.

The George Jay School, the chapter's adopted school, the Girl Guides, Bazaar, etc., were all given donations before the chapter broke up for the summer months.

The inmates of the Aged Men's Home wish to tender their thanks for the following donations received during June: Mrs. Nixon, books and papers; Miss Knowles, reading matter; Anonymous, reading matter; Bishop Cridge Chapter, I.O.D.E., reading matter; Mrs. J. A. MacDonald, cakes, etc.; Mr. R. M. Angus, reading matter; Miss Gray, reading matter; Mrs. Pinder, crate of strawberries. HOUSE WEDDING UNITES POPULAR LOCAL TEACHERS

Nuptials Wednesday of Miss Mary L. Lewis and William H. Muncy

Two popular teachers were united in marriage at a pretty house wedding on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Lewis, 1410 Harrison Street, when their elder daughter, Mary Louise, became the bride of Mr. William H. Muncy. The bride has been a member of the teaching staff of the Kingston Street School, and Mr. Muncy is principal of the Quadra Street School.

Rev. W. J. Sippel, D.D., performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Wm. Elliott. The house was very prettily decorated for the occasion in a color scheme of pastel shades of pink, mauve and blue, sweet peas, delphinium and white roses being the principal flowers. The bride wore a gown of white satin, with a train of white tulle, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked charming in her lovely gown of white satin, outlined with the neck with tulle falling in soft folds on the skirt and caught at the waistline with a diamond buckle. Her train was of white tulle, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword.

During the ceremony Mrs. Sidney Roberts of Seattle sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. H. W. Irving.

After the service a reception was held, Mrs. Lewis, mother of the bride, receiving the many guests in a smart gown of beige lace and georgette. The buffet supper was served from a table centred with the three-tiered wedding cake and decorated with mauve sweet peas and pink roses. Mrs. Frank Lewis and Mrs. T. Mason of Vancouver presided, and were assisted in serving by Mrs. Arthur Lewis Jr. of Seattle, Mrs. Ray Hutchinson, Portland, Mrs. Frank White, Nanaimo, Miss Gertrude Vancouver, Miss Dora Lewis, Hamilton, Miss May Lewis and the Misses Rita and Jean Sargent.

Among the many handsome gifts received was a dinner service presented to the bridegroom by the Quadra Parent-Teacher Association, and an Indian brass and enameled tray presented to the bride from her colleagues at Kingston Street School. Mr. and Mrs. Muncy left to spend a honeymoon motoring through Oregon and Washington, and later will make their home on Blackwood Street.

At the wedding were Mr. J. L. Lewis and Miss Dora Lewis, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Lewis, and Miss Gertrude Vancouver; Mrs. Arthur E. Lewis Jr., Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. J. Bickerton, New Westminster; Mrs. Ray Hutchinson, Portland; Mrs. Frank White, Nanaimo; and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Roberts, Seattle.

Presented Two Bursaries to Local School

By a unanimous and standing vote the members of the Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.D.E., yesterday expressed their pleasure and sincere congratulations to Miss Mary Lawson on being the recipient of the well-deserved honor bestowed upon her, on July 2, by her fellow citizens of Victoria.

A message of love and sympathy was sent to their regent, Mrs. R. B. McKicking, who was prevented by a slight accident from being present at the meeting.

Mrs. Plasket also being absent, Mrs. Walker, second vice-regent, was in the chair at the meeting, which was held in the headquarters in the Union Building yesterday. Mrs. E. C. Hayward, educational secretary, brought an interesting report of the presentation of two bursaries of $10 each to pupils of the Burnside School, by the chapter, and a charming letter from the recipient, Miss Margaret McKim, the recipient, expressing her thanks for the prize. Books of plays have been presented to the Sir James Douglas School.

Miss E. King, for many years a member of the Clementina Fergusson Chapter of Regina, was cordially welcomed, on transferring to the chapter. Heather Day this year will be commemorated by a garden party, instead of the usual sale of Heather in the streets, and a committee was formed to make arrangements for the suitable keeping of the day, which will include the sale of Heather and the placing of a wreath on the war memorial to keep in memory the leaving of the First Contingent on August 26, 1914.

The matter of hospitality for the British school girls, who are to visit Victoria in September, was brought to the meeting and offers received. Mrs. Boyd, Echoes secretary, is acting as transportation officer for the Municipal Chapter for the occasion. The chapter's interest was aroused by reading the suggestion that has been made by a local firm to restore in some measure the appearance of the bastion, which formerly stood at the corner of Government and Bastion Streets, and which of the many should have been carefully preserved as a memento of the early days of the colony and Fort Victoria.

FORMER VICTORIA SINGER RECALLS LIFE IN EUROPE

Mrs. Wilson-Jones Tells of Empress's Charm

The many Victoria friends of Mrs. Wilson-Jones, who lived for some years in this city, and was well known for her beautiful voice, will be interested in the following from a Montreal paper.

FORMER COUNTESS
"Madame Wilson-Jones is paying her fourth visit to Canada, and was interviewed recently in this city on her way to Kamouraska, where she will spend the summer. She was formerly the Countess von Bismarck, and is exceptionally interesting musical training, possessing a voice which might have brought her world fame if her parents had not opposed her entering upon a professional career. During the past few years, she has turned her talents to teaching singing, being on the staff of the University of California, and having enjoyed the distinction of being president of the Music Teachers' Association of California. She studied with the elder Lamperle, Sir Manuel Garcia, and with the great Madame Marchesi, in Paris.

DINED WITH GLADSTONE
"What was perhaps a unique distinction was once gained by this artist. 'I was dining with the Aberdeens, and was there, and he seemed very tired. After dinner Mrs. Gladstone asked Lady Aberdeen if I would sing, something very soothing,' she whispered to me. I sang 'Angels Ever Bright and Fair,' and to this day I can see Mr. Gladstone and the Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Benson, seated at my side, their venerable white heads bowed.

"When I had sung, the Archbishop came up and thanked me, adding, 'It is not every life the girl who can sing that she kept the Queen waiting! Both he and Mr. Gladstone had been notified that Queen Victoria wished to see them at 10 o'clock, and it was then a quarter past.'

A TUDOR SCENE

"The finest body of old N.C.O.'s in the world." This was the title given to the Yeomen of the Guard by the Duke of Connaught when, at St. James' Palace, he inspected the King's bodyguard of the Yeomen. With gold-tasselled pikes clasped in white-gloved hands, red stockings and black shoes, scarlet uniforms with red and black facings, quaint black velvet hats, and bearded chins above white ruffs, they looked as though they had stepped out of the frame of some old picture. The oldest man of the party was eighty-five and the average age was about seventy. They stood in a double line, backed by the ivy-covered wall of the Palace, as stiffly as any Guards company, while the Duke, in the blue uniform of a Field Marshal, inspected them. The Duke chatted with every man, while a crowd of well-known people, including Mrs. and Miss Baldwin, looked on.

NEW PASTOR
IS INDUCTEDRev. S. T. Galbraith Installed
at St. Aidan's Church,
Mount Tolmie

The induction of the Rev. S. T. Galbraith was solemnized last night at St. Aidan's Church, before a large congregation. The Rev. W. A. Guy, chairman of the Presbytery of Victoria, presided.

Following the formal installation, Rev. Hugh Nixon addressed words of advice to the new pastor, telling him of the responsibility and opportunity which fell to the lot of the modern minister. Quoting from John Stuart Mill, the speaker stated that the progress of a people depended upon the capability of their leaders, and along ecclesiastical lines the post of leader had never before been such a hampering and costly position.

The Rev. J. G. Bompas spoke to the people of the church, asking them to do all in their power to aid their pastor in making St. Aidan's a centre of Christian life in the district.

Rev. H. L. Armitage and the Rev. H. I. Ireland were in charge of the worship period. After the ceremony, a social gathering was held in the hall where the members of the congregation were given an opportunity to meet their new pastor.

MARYE AND
"MOM"
Their Letters

Dear Marye:

By this time nearly everyone in town has seen your photograph in the paper, and they're quite thrilled over it. They all say you have become much smarter and more stylish since you are living in Mill city, and that you wear your clothes with an air.

I have taken no issue, but I maintain that you always did look well, even when you lived in a little town, and wore home-made clothes.

What pleased me most about it was the fact that Alan was so proud of you, and that he really approved of your stunt and thought you were helping him.

It doesn't necessarily imply, my dear, that a man is a social climber just because he likes to have his wife identified with the best and most established people in a community.

You see, a man has to make a place for himself in the business world, and he has to make it a solid and substantial thing. And running the risk of being called old-fashioned, I will say that I think a woman has an obligation to establish herself socially in the same way.

You may not want to be a society queen, and I hope you don't, but at the same time, you want to be welcomed in the best society. Social climbing is disgusting, and I should hate to feel that you had any of the instincts of a climber, but since you must have affiliations and friends, it seems to me wise to make them among people that your husband respects and approves of.

The difference between the Bohemian society, which seemed to attract you so strongly at first, and the more established order is largely the difference between stability and a constantly changing circle.

An artist or an eccentric person may be the vogue one year, and the next he is forgotten while another takes his place. The satellites change with the orbits around which they revolve.

You probably will accuse me now of lecturing you, but I have not meant to do so. First and foremost, I always want you to be happy and if I thought you and Alan were natural "Bohemians" I never should try to change you, but I know you are not. And even now, unless I am mistaken, you are becoming a little tired of them.

The picture of the coat you sent me suits me exactly, and I am cutting one as nearly like it as I can. The sleeves are something of a problem, but everything else about it is simple. Thank you so much, my dear.

Devotedly, MOM.

Princess Patricia Lodge—The regular meeting of Princess Patricia Lodge No. 238, Order Daughters of St. George, will be held Friday evening, July 6, at 8 p.m. at Harmony Hall.

YOUR BABY AND MINE
By MRS. MARYE BROWN

Mrs. Brown will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

OLDER CHILD IS OFTEN STARVED FOR ATTENTION

Mrs. A. D. writes:

"This is the first time I have written to you. I have a little girl who will soon be eight years old. She is never happier than when she is on my lap. Do you think it will make life harder for her when she grows up if I continue to show her all this affection? I have three younger children and no doubt you wonder how I have time to pet this one, but I never have to go to her, she always comes to me."

"What shall I do when the children tell me things which I know are not true? I know this is their imagination, but what shall I do, ignore their stories, and will they later be inclined to tell me lies?"

ANSWER: You see, I had to shorten your letter considerably to fit this space, but you will recognize it. Oftentimes the older child is pushed aside when the younger ones arrive, not because the parent does not love him, but because there are other small babies to hold and the older one should be sensible enough to understand the state. You are never to be too busy, despite your cares, to take time to show this older child your affection. She will be happier, later, she will outgrow this tendency naturally, and won't have the feeling that

CONSERVATIVES
HALT MATHESON

DENOUNCES ELECTRIC DEAL

This interesting argument followed Capt. Matheson's address on British Columbia's need of legislation to conserve the province's water power. He declared that the "Electric deal" which he declared would cost the people of the Province many millions of dollars a year.

GAVE AMPLE WARNING

Capt. Matheson said in commencement he had not come out as a candidate suddenly and had given ample intimation to Conservatives generally that he was not satisfied with the work of the four former members of the Legislature for Victoria.

Most of the Conservative and Liberal candidates in the city, he stated, had formally declined to meet his challenge to them to debate in public his charge that most members of the Legislature were serving special interests at the expense of the people of B.C. If the candidates would meet him, he said, he believed he could prove his charge.

So long as the Legislature was serving special interests, he declared, British Columbia could not progress as it should. The resources of the Province, he added, were being developed largely for the benefit of the United States and British Columbia was getting only wages out of them in many cases.

He went on to attack the "B.C. Electric Railway deal," and the action of the Legislature in passing the company's charter legislation and thus permitting the sale of stock, consummated recently, through the municipalities, and the action of the House of Commons in passing the bill, despite protest from the public.

"They did it," he said, "and they were warned."

PEOPLE TO PAY

As a result of the action taken, he declared, the capital of the Province had risen to $100,000,000. He stated that the people of B.C. should be forced by the Legislature to pay rates for electricity sufficient to cover this increase. In stage then spoke for the regular party candidates in this election!" he exclaimed.

When he was asked whether the Conservative opposition opposed the charter legislation Mr. Matheson replied: "Mr. Pooley was leader of the opposition. He was in charge and was speaking for the opposition. He not only failed to oppose the bill. He was boosting for it!"

He blamed Liberals and Conservatives alike for the passage of the charter legislation and attacked the Government for failing to carry out the recommendation of the private bills committee that a public utility commission be established in British Columbia to control operations like that of the B.C. Electric.

PEOPLE NOT PROTECTED

British Columbia legislators were failing utterly to conserve the electrical resources of the Province for the public, he declared. He mentioned Campbell River as an instance of the policy of giving away priceless power sites to private interests.

"They give them away with a glad hand to anyone who comes along," he charged, referring also to the proposed use of the Kimsquit River, Vancouver Island for a pulp mill, although it would destroy a valuable fishery and was opposed by Dominion fishery authorities.

"We let things go on that would not be tolerated in the States for a moment," he said. "There they fight for the protection of the public."

"The B.C. Electric deal will cost the people of B.C. $3,500,000 a year in extra interest charges," he declared, adding that this was far more than the cost of old age pensions, some $1,250,000 a year.

URGES INDEPENDENTS
"Well, be just as bad off if we put the Conservatives in as if we put in the Liberals," said a man in the back of the hall and "What's your remedy?"

"Put a few independents and labor members in there and you'll see a change," he said. "When that legislation came in, I would have called a public meeting in Victoria and I would have been associated with people in Vancouver to do likewise, to protest against this thing. He added that he would not follow the Conservative party in serving special interests."

At this point Mr. Maynard launched into vigorous interruptions, declaring that Mr. Matheson was no Conservative and that he had never seen any men in control of the Provincial Government who were not grafters.

SEES GRAFT
"Two men control the whole cheese and they get a graft for it," Mr. Maynard charged.

"I've never had any graft," Capt. Matheson flashed back, "but if you think I can control the whole House vote for me!"

"I have continuous interruption and insult from those who depend on the patronage of political parties, like a dog waiting for a bone," the candidate declared.

"From business men and working men, on the other hand, I receive keen interest and attention when I discuss these matters."

He went on to attack the last timber royalty legislation, which he called "rotten," and the cause of a loss of some $1,000,000 a year to the people. He accused Conservatives in the Legislature for supporting this legislation with the exception of two members.

The "rotten" trouble of the meeting started when Mr. Maynard started to interrupt Capt. Matheson and a man in the audience shouted at Mr. Maynard: "What are you talking about? You supported Lockley, an independent, in the last election!"

"You're a liar!" shouted Mr. Maynard. "Now take that up if you want to!"

"Go on! I know the whole brood you were working for!" the man retorted.

"What are you getting out of it?" Capt. Matheson asked Mr. Maynard.

"Oh, some of his beer!" said the man.

"Don't accuse me of things I'm not guilty of! I won't take that from anyone!" yelled Mr. Maynard excitedly.

BEER PROFITS
"Do you remember three years ago when auditors went into the breweries and found they were making about 90 per cent profit?" asked Capt. Matheson.

"No, sir, and you don't either!" Mr. Maynard replied. "I say you are a liar, too! You can't prove it! You're crazy, man!"

"Will you appoint one of your helpers to debate it with me?" Capt. Matheson demanded. "Do you think I'm a fool?"

Capt. Matheson roared Mr. Maynard, "I'm not a fool. The public has been told that you are a liar, too. Now you are about to prove it!"

Maynard declared that he would not get into a debate with a man who would not talk to him on an equal basis. "Don't talk to me on an equal basis or I'll get into a fight!"

"Well, then, appoint one of your helpers to debate it with me," Capt. Matheson insisted.

"I've got no dependents! I look after myself," said Mr. Maynard.

WOULD LIKE PROFITS
After a long wrangle Capt. Matheson said he was talking of breweries generally and Mr. Maynard said he was only interested in the Silver Spring Brewery, adding, "I wish to God I was making 90 per cent."

Capt. Matheson, resuming his speech, attacked Conservatives in the Legislature for spending their time on "frivolities" like campaign fund investigations and neglecting matters of vital concern to the Province.

"What is a $50,000 commission or a liquor deal compared with a deal like the B.C. Electric sale, which costs the people $100,000,000 a year?" he asked.

He described his efforts to stop the "rotten" waterworks legislation in the Legislature, and told how they had been snubbed by the members.

When Mr. Maynard started to interrupt again, H. R. Brown, the chairman, sprang to his feet and shouted: "You'll behave, Mr. Maynard, or we'll call an officer, now outside, and have you conducted down the stairs and out!"

Mr. Maynard lapsed into silence and left the hall when Capt. Matheson concluded his speech, protesting that he was "a straight shooter."

"The old days are gone when whole families lived out their days in one neighborhood, buying or renting new places occasionally, but never very far from the old one. Folks come to me from all parts of the city now. I don't know them, and they don't know me."

"That's one reason why I use Times 'Want Ads.' They break the ice—give folks advance confidence in me, and give me confidence in them. When people see my ad day after day they know I am in business to stay."

For real estate sales always use the Times "Want Ads."

It is not difficult to own a home. Many very desirable homes can be purchased on a comparatively small down payment. Terms may be arranged that are nearly as convenient as a monthly rental, and it is much more pleasant to put aside a payment on your own home than to pay rent. Because you know you are making an investment on which there is a good return.

"Shop in the Times Real Estate Ads for the home you want. You will find the number at the right price, some as low as $500 down, in just the location you desire—then go out Sunday with your family. LABOR COUNCIL WISHES CHANGES

Will Submit Platform to Election Candidates For Guide in Voting

Alterations in the administration of the criminal law in British Columbia, advocacy of state health insurance and several other matters are included in a questionnaire to be submitted to the provincial candidates in Victoria by the Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council.

Following will be some of the questions submitted:

1—Will you support legislation appointing a "public defender" to represent prisoners in all cases in which a "public prosecutor" is employed? Do you agree that the public interest requires the State to be as kindly interested in the acquittal as in the conviction of any prisoner?

2—Will you advocate the selection of the best legal talent procurable for the defense of all prisoners charged with capital or other serious crimes instead of the present practice of choosing inexperienced juniors?

3—Will you support such revision of the present procedure as will insure the selection of a better grade of jury men, both at inquests and at criminal trials? Attention is called to the marked contrast between the average "grand jury" and the average "petit jury."

4—Will you support the adoption of the proportional representation electoral system at all provincial elections with a view to giving fair representation to all important elements of thought and action in the community? Will you support the election of a Government to conduct the business of the province on a party basis?

5—Will you support the extension of the principle of medical freedom and the right of the patient to choose his own healer?

6—Will you support legislation to remove many of the present restrictions which operate to deny the benefit of doctors' pensions to deserving cases?

Saanich Council Hears Letter
From J. S. H. Matson to This Effect

It approached by H. B. Olson, J. S. H. Matson is prepared to take over all the equipment used in the East Saanich Road service at a fair valuation, to be determined by arbitration, was the gist of a letter read to the Saanich Council last evening from J. S. H. Matson on behalf of the proposed franchise holders.

It was unanimously decided at the council meeting that a copy of the Saanich transportation by-law be forwarded to every ratepayer within the municipality, together with a letter from Reeve William Crouch endorsing it, before polling day, Saturday, July 14.

An additional clause to guarantee operation of buses on a schedule not less than that in force at present, and that the fares will not be increased without the permission of the council, will be added to the bus franchise by-law. The clause will be inserted before the by-law is ratified by private bill in the Legislature.

At the wish of the Reeve and council, that all matters pertaining to the sale of the same to Mr. Matson, be made public, the following letter from the law firm of Heisterman and Tait was read to the council:

"Dear Sir:—Following the suggestions in this matter, I, purporting to act on Mr. Matson's behalf, approached Messrs. Courtenay and Olson, intimating that a sale of Olson's Sidney run could be made to Mr. Matson upon proper terms, and asked him to give me figures for the sale of the same to Mr. Matson, indicating that he would be willing to purchase the present equipment which they are using there and the goodwill of this run, also advising them of the undertaking which you have from Mr. Matson. An interview with Mr. Olson and Mr. Courtenay was had in which they professed to be willing to sell any one or more of all of the following assets to Mr. Matson:

"The Sidney run, the Nanaimo run or the whole of Olson's undertaking. Upon pressing them for an offer for the Sidney run, the following offer was received, $26,500 for the Sidney run and certain specified assets thereof."

The letter went on to state that the manager of a reputable city garage (the name of the manager and garage was given), "was good enough to look over the equipment for me and the following was found, that of the cars offered, one only (Cadillac 30) was being used by Mr. Olson, one other (Cadillac 25) was used intermittently. The total assets for which he was asking $26,500 outside of the goodwill seem to be worth at the most, according to the valuator's appraisal, $7,300."

LOOK TO YOUR GOLF TOGS!

Now Is the Time to Consider Tee Styles—Color Bids for Favor.

By CURTIS WOOD

When a man golfs, the fit and looks of his clothes unconsciously help him to look to his tee.

Now is the time for all good golfers to look to their tees.

Plus fours are the thing in knickers this year. But they are not quite so plus as before. So far as materials go, the sky is the limit; imagination has set for patterns, colors and so on.

It looks as if it's going to be a colorful season on the links.

PURPLE IS GOOD

Now woads, flannels, homespuns and tweed linens all offer themselves in bewildering array. Purple shades are good. But the biggest run of suits is to browns, tans, greys and the black-white combination. They let accessories show a man's true flair. And how they do it!

One neatly checked sandalwood tan worsted golf suit has lines of dark brown to mark off its design. The coat of this suit has the notched lapels that are in style right now. It is a two-button coat, though many of the golf suits feature one button. The shoulders are the broad athletic kind, and a Norfolk back gives a jaunty look of youth to the coat. The knickers are the never-sunder ones.

CAPS TO MATCH

A cap matches this suit. Many caps do, this Spring. They are not so full as last season, either in shape or in color. The accessories for Mr. Golfer include jaunty striped shirts, colorful ties that take gaudy stripes or noticeable figures of golfers or some golf sticks, sweaters in every color from pastel shades to black and white and socks that may or may not match the sweater.

Full-ons of fine weaves in pastel colors are good for light flannel suits or the Summer lines. These have no design, but are of solid color—blue in a baby shade being not so bad. Lawn-tennis shoes are fine for green suits. Shoes play no small part in golfing smartness now. Baby doeskin, with saddles of calf or even fancy alligator, are snappy enough to tread any links with pride—clashed skin is used for some sports shoes. The outstanding contribution to new golf shoes, however, does not show at first glance. It is a new, non-slip sole—a crepe sole that positively will not slip at a crucial moment.

With such variety in everything from caps to shoes, Mr. Golfer has only one duty to his fellow golfers. He must harmonize his costume and accessories. Otherwise everything is O.K. and the more sportily an outfit can set a man up this season the better it is.

LONDON TO IRELAND

London (By Mail)—Thoughts on a journey to Ireland.

Funny how uncomfortable the English railways, acting in conjunction with the steamships across the Irish Sea and the Irish railways, make travelers. Seem to penalize them for going to Ireland.

Most journeys start from London in the evening and land the passenger at some seaport about 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning. Then a hop to a boat across the Irish Sea, taking three or four hours. Then in the chill grey of very early morning to an Irish train. Everything so rigged up as to make a decent sleep impossible.

I am on a train from Rosslare Harsh and bor to Cork. The total distance is ninety-six miles. The train is on its Sunday schedule and goes madly hurtling along at the dizzying rate of about eighteen miles an hour. It will only take five hours and forty minutes to do the trip.

Think of a journey a couple of weeks ago when I flew from Berlin to Paris over 700 miles, in five hours and ten minutes. Speed of the albatross in a German plane. Speed of a turtle in an Irish train.

It's a lovely land, this little Ireland that millions of Irishmen all over the world think of as "home." Green as green, with smiling deep blue Irish skies, bluer than English heavens ever are. Everywhere soft rolling hills. And noble streams.

It's curious. Great Britain is over three times the size of Ireland, but Great Britain is singularly poor in rivers. Most of her so-called rivers we would label as creeks. But Ireland, in such streams as the Lee, the Suir, the Shannon and the Liffey, has the real thing, many of them being deep enough to allow fairly good-sized ocean vessels to ply some distance up them.

We are passing through Fermoy, a little town built like so many Irish towns, of stone. Fermoy is to-day a sad monument to the troubles that beset Ireland before she achieved some measure of peace and independence as the Irish Free State. In one of the disturbances a house caught fire. Before the blaze burned itself out, about half the town burned down. To-day one passes the ruins. The townspeople have been too poor to rebuild.

Four men playing the game of solo in the dunes. They call trumps. A spade is a spade. A club is a club. Then one chap says "pawbroker's dream." Maybe you guessed it. The trump is diamonds.

Cork—a busy looking place of some 70,000 people. The biggest thing in it and the newest and most modern is Henry Ford's assembly plant. Best thing ever happened for the town. Ford wages are being paid. Forces up the standard in all factories. And Ford's taught them another thing—a full day's work for a full day's pay.

Queenstown—a beautiful port, one of the most beautiful in the world. Transatlantic steamers, make this a port of call. They bring Americans and Canadians of Irish ancestry on a visit to the old country. They also bear away with them Ireland's most valuable possession—her strong young men going out as emigrants to the New World. Every week the same scene—the tears of the old people who bid them farewell.—M. B.

OUR TREES
THE TULIP TREE

Tall and stately and conspicuous in the Spring for its handsome tulip-shaped orange and yellow flowers, the tulip tree is one of the beauties of the Eastern forests.

Because its leaves flutter like those of the poplars, it is sometimes called yellow poplar. The Indians so habitually made their dugout canoes of its trunk that the early settlers of the West called it canoewood.

The tulip tree grows to magnificent size in the forest, often attaining a height of 100 feet. The flowers are large and brilliant. In color they are greenish yellow with dashes of red and orange, and their resemblance to a tulip is very marked.

"RELIABLE REALTORS"

NEW VITAMIN IS DISCOVERED BY CANADIAN

Reuter's Special to The Victoria Times

London, July 6.—Keen interest is expressed by medical men in London in the discovery by Professor Leah Miller, of Toronto, of the means of producing artificially a valuable substance known as "Bios No. 1," which is found in human beings and in plants.

This substance is specially needed for growth, and certain biochemists consider that the discovery may considerably affect the theories of diet founded upon vitamin contents.

Professor Plimmer, of the New Health Society, did not, however, see how the vitamin standpoint would be affected.

"What Professor Miller has discovered at Toronto," he said, "is probably a hitherto unknown substance of great value in stimulating growth, and a distinct addition to the recognized vitamins. Five vitamins have now been definitely recognized, and named after the first five letters of the alphabet. We are on the track of another, and Professor Miller's discovery may be the sixth or seventh."

G. Earnshaw, Protege of J. Dunn, Turns in First Victory For Athletics

Fast Ball Artist Beat Red Sox 5-0; Rain Washes Out Only Two National Games

Another of Jack Dunn's boys has come through in the major leagues. George Earnshaw, right handed fast ball expert, who came to Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics several weeks ago, yesterday pitched his first "big time" victory, defeating the Boston Red Sox 5 to 0.

Baltimore long has been noted as a fertile field for the rearing of baseball stars, especially pitchers. Dunn, manager of the Orioles, from time immemorial is the Wilbert Robinson of the minor leagues. He has a knack for developing pitchers. It is a profitable accomplishment, too, for major league clubs that separate Jack from his pitchers do so at the severe punishment of their pocketbooks.

Earnshaw has had a tough time getting started in the big leagues. His first victory did not come until he had made six bad starts. But when he finally crashed through it was with a vengeance.

The Red Sox got only three scattered singles off him and, despite the fact that he granted six bases on balls, he never was in trouble. Five men went down on strikes.

No other American League games were scheduled, and rain washed out the two National League contests scheduled.

SIDNEY PLAY HERE TO-NIGHT

Will Oppose Westholmes in Commercial League Ball Game at Royal Athletic

In a Commercial League baseball fixture Sidney and the Westholmes will meet to-night at the Royal Athletic Park, commencing at 8.15 o'clock. Westholmes have yet to lose their first game in the second half of the league schedule, although they were held to a draw by the Tillamooks.

In their last game Sidney and the Westholmes played to a 6-6 draw in ten innings of fast ball, so a good battle is looked for to-night. Steele is expected to pitch for Sidney, while Munnery will take the mound for the hotelmen.

SOFTBALL

Marigold softballers, leaders of the Westholme League, ran into a tough snag last night when they were beaten on their home grounds, 17-11, by Langford. A win for the leaders would have given them the league championship. Langford by their victory remain in the running for the title.

In the other two games the Westholmes played to a 6-6 draw in ten innings of fast ball, so a good battle is looked for to-night. Steele is expected to pitch for Sidney, while Munnery will take the mound for the hotelmen.

Tunney Continues His Training Paces

Speculator, N.Y., July 6.—Avoiding the scorching sun of mid-day, Gene Tunney yesterday went through his training paces in the cool of the early morning, boxing three rounds with both Harold Mayes and Bill Vitabock. The heavyweight champion will defend his title against Tom Heeney at the Yankee Stadium just three weeks from last night. Tunney did no road work yesterday because of the heat, preferring to devote the few cool hours to boxing and bag punching.

PLAYING WELL

JIM BOTTOMLEY

First baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, whose flock of home runs this season puts him in a tie with Del Bissnette of Brooklyn for the leadership for that department in the National League. Incidentally, he is playing a great game at first base and is getting quite a number of doubles and triples as well as singles when they are needed in the pinch.

SIDNEY WIN OVER C.P.S.

Score 4-2 Victory in Senior Lacrosse Fixture; Clanton Gets Two Goals

Sidney added another victory to their credit in the Victoria and District Lacrosse League last night when they defeated C.P.S. 4-2, at Sidney. The millmen opened the scoring late in the first quarter when Clanton beat Jack Crossley with a low shot.

In the second period Sidney dominated the play and scored two more goals, Mel Hick and Segelabra being responsible.

Sidney completed their scoring in the third quarter, Clanton getting in close to beat Crossley. Still fighting hard C.P.S. finally broke the ice when Crossley netted the ball.

Two hits later Sidney won the last period, holding Sidney scoreless. The losers scored their final goal when Doug Banks beat Norton with a good shot.

Barton refereed and the teams were as follows:

Sidney—Norton, Saxon, Hill, Gilman, Bowcott, Jenkins, Anderson, Clanton, Hicks and Segelabra.

C.P.S.—J. Crossley, Tamboline, De Costa, Scafe, Robertson, McDonald, Banks, L. Crossley, M. McClure and Mercer.

Morgan-Martin Bout Postponed Through Weather

New York, July 6.—A sudden cloud-burst coming on the tail end of a sweltering day caused postponement of the junior lightweight match between Morgan and Martin (Cannonball) Martin. New York challenger. The match, one of fifteen rounds, will be staged next Wednesday night.

Detroit Boy Wins Decathlon Title

Philadelphia, July 6.—Kenneth Doherty of the Cadillac Athletic Club, Detroit, yesterday won the National Decathlon championship. James Stewart of the Los Angeles club, was second, and Barney Berlinger of the University of Pennsylvania, third, and Thomas Churchill of the University of Oklahoma, fourth. All four gained places on the United States Olympic team in this all-around track and field event, as this was the final.

Q.M.D. Evans of Garrison Rifle Club Takes Louis Taylor Cup at Heals

Major R. M. Blair Wins Victoria Match With Possible; Lt. Fyvie Wins Shoot-off

Q.M.S. Evans' winning of the Louis D. Taylor match for the second year in succession was one of the features of the second day's shoot of the British Columbia Rifle Association at Heals rifle range.

Shooting steadily and consistently he made a 49 out of a possible 50, winning, besides permanent possession of the cup, a bronze medal and fifteen dollars cash.

The Victoria match shot at 300 and 800 yards, went to Major R. M. Blair of the 72nd Seaforth Highlanders of Vancouver, who made a possible 70. Master of Gunner Collins of the Garrison Rifle Association was runner-up with a score of 69.

Wednesday in the Westminster match, four marksmen were tied for first place and in the shoot-off yesterday, Lieut. D. Fyvie and Sergeant S. Watson again tied for first place with 24's from a possible 25. It was decided to have these riflemen shoot and shot about until one was made a bull's-eye. Lieut. Fyvie's first shot was an inner, as was Sergeant Watson's. Amid deadly silence Lieut. Fyvie sank his second in the bull's-eye while Sergeant Watson made an outer inner, thereby losing the coveted trophy to Lieut. Fyvie.

Capt. G. Perry of the 112th Cadets carried the honors in the Sandys-Munich match for a white tie in the P.P.C.L.I. service trophy the 112th again took first place for the second time in succession. In this match the teams of four men stand at the 300 yard range and at the command "advance" run to the 200-yard butts, load and fire five rounds per man at one minute. The winner is the team that shatters the most plates with the least ammunition in the shortest time.

Last year's team of thirty-seven seconds still remains to be beaten. The 112th's "B" team accomplishing a difficult feat of marksmanship in 40 seconds this year.

To-day's feature matches will be the Dayson and the MacDonald Brier No. 2. Yesterday's results follow:

London, July 6.—Senorita de Alvarez of Spain, who has been suffering from an attack of laryngitis, stated this morning that she would be able to meet Helen Wills in the finals of the women's singles tennis championship at Wimbledon to-morrow.

It had been feared that she would be unable to continue in the play.

TEAMS HIT BALL HARD

Twenty-six Hits Seen in Amateur League Game; Sons Defeat Eagles 9-8

In a game featured by heavy hitting, Sons of Canada, leaders of the Senior Amateur Baseball League, defeated the Eagles 9-8 last night at the Royal Athletic Park. Both teams hit the ball hard and although the lodgement gathered in ten more hits than the Sons still they failed to win.

It was a tough night for pitchers no less than twenty-six safe hits being collected. Kerr on the mound for the Sons, was nicked for eighteen, while the Sons touched up Roy Baker for eight.

The game got away to a one-run lead in the first inning but in their half of the frame the Canadians got three hits that went for two runs. Not to be outdone the Eagles then checked home two in the second to again take a one-run advantage. In the third frame the Sons got a two-run lead when three men crossed the rubber.

The lodgements were able to sneak one man home in the fourth.

WINNING RUNS

The Sons scored what proved to be the winning runs in the fifth. The Sons scored two runs on clean hits and with Colin Campbell on third and Post at second, Bobby Ross threw wild to third allowing the two runners to score.

In the sixth the Eagles came within an ace of tying up the count, when they scored four runs two of which came when Dunc lifted one over the centre field fence with Hap Gandy on first.

The Eagles had a great chance to take the lead in the eighth. "Hap Gandy" the first man up singled and advanced to third when Gandy was hit by a two-bagger. However, the next three men went out in order, and the Sons still had their one-run lead.

Bobby Ross led the hitters with four singles out of five trips to the plate. Bill Holman was hitting the ball hard connecting for three doubles out of five times at bat.

TENNIS TALKS

By GEORGE M. LOTT, JR.

Two good singles players do not necessarily make a good doubles team. The reason for this is that teamwork and court position have a great deal to do with the success of a doubles team. Many times I have seen two fine singles players go down to defeat before two rather mediocre singles men due to the good teamwork and strategy of the latter. The Kinsey brothers, United States doubles champions in 1924, won their title because they worked together and knew every minute just what the other would do with each shot.

The most important thing in doubles is to keep the ball in play. Give the other man a chance to miss. Do not try to score winners off every shot. The Kinsey brothers always sent everything back and their opponents upon finding their best shots coming back would soon get discouraged.

The best position to be in is at the net. It is easy to see that it is very hard to pass two men who are camped at the net. In order to get the ball past two men the ball must be hit very hard, and the fact that your opponents are forced to hit hard increases their number of errors as they find themselves pressing their shots. When at the net use volleys down the middle of the court, unless a setup presents itself.

If you are forced into the backcourt the best way to meet a net attack is with shots right down the centre at your opponents' feet, the idea being to make them volley up so that you will get a short shot to take the net away from them. Lobs also are useful in driving your opponents back.

The ideal doubles team is one that keeps the ball in play constantly yet forces matters enough to put the opposing team on the defence and at the same time is able to take the net to finish the points.

'PEG CREW WINS WAY TO FINALS

Western Oarsmen Meet Toronto Argos To-night in Finals of Olympic Eights

St. Catharines, Ont., July 6.—Although University of Toronto gave Argonauts of the same city a terrific tussle in their heat of the Olympic eights on the opening day of the regatta of the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen yesterday, the Argos are looking for a harder contest in the final this evening when they meet Winnipeg.

The Western crew fairly ran away from McGill University yesterday, and the time of the heat, 6:18 1/2, was eight seconds slower than that of the closer contest. Argos have the strength, while Winnipeg relies on smooth, clear stroke with a whip at the end of it. This final is the last event on the card to-day.

St. Catharines, Ont., July 6.—Excellent weather conditions favored the opening day of the forty-sixth annual regatta of the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen, which carried as a special feature the Olympic trials for the selection of three crews to represent Canada at Amsterdam.

By a decisive victory against Ottawa, a Winnipeg four, without a coxswain, became an Olympic choice. Argonauts, in the closest finish of the day, secured first place in Olympic fours with coxswain, against McGill.

The first two heats in the Olympic eights gave a slight indication of the kind of contest the final will be to-day between Winnipeg and Argonauts. Winnipeg, with brilliant style and working with marvelous precision, had no great amount of difficulty disposing of McGill.

A GREAT RACE
The second heat between Toronto University and Argonauts was a struggle from gun to gun. The time for the heat, 6:30, was eight seconds faster than the heat won by Winnipeg.

Winnipeg Rowing Club, in the four-oared event, without coxswain, won by a margin of five lengths. The time was 7:30.

In the junior eights the Leander Club, of Brockville, second, eliminated the Buffalo Westsides entry in the 140-pound singles and will compete to-day in the final against A. Marantette, of Detroit, first, and English Argonauts, second, who left St. Catharines and St. Catharines behind in their heats. Stanfield and Marantette led nearly all the distance in their heats.

Through the illness of S. Johnston, stroke for the Argonauts, 150-pound crew, a new four will represent that club in the final to-day. It comprises Ellis, A. Hill, J. Butler and R. Young. Johnston was taken down with appendicitis after being out in his shell Wednesday morning.

Burns won his heat in the association singles yesterday against Maurice Brett of St. Catharines, and Wesley Durnan of Argos. Burns will be pitted against V. Wehmeier of Detroit in the final of this singles event to-day.

Wehmeier won his heat by a rousing victory over Barrett of the Dons having scratched.

Until the Olympic eights are decided to-day, the final cannot be made for the senior eight-oared championships.

HORSE RACING
Vancouver, B.C., July 6.—Good yesterday and thrilling finishes featured yesterday's racing at Ladbrooke Park, the card being witnessed by another large crowd.

Picnic, ridden by Broadfoot, sprung one of the surprises of the afternoon when he was brought in to win by half a length over Merry Chase in the fifth event. The winner went to the post at 9 to 1 and paid $19.75 straight, or $31.00 across the board. Montello, favorite, came third. Moonchild led the field from the barrier, but gave up the ghost entering the stretch and finished fifth.

Clarimonde Hope took the first with ease, winning by two lengths from Singapore. Cadmus coming third. Randolph went to the post first choice, but finished fourth.

Results follow:
First race, purse $500; three-year-olds and up; six furlongs—1. Clarimonde Hope, $18.00, $28.00, $5.00; 2. Singapore, $10.00, $5.70, $3.00; 3. Cadmus, $3.55, Time 1:15 1/5.

Seventh race, purse $600; four-year-olds and up; one mile and seventy yards—1. Sancho Panza, $11.00, $5.50, $3.80; 2. Gondolier, $4.90, $3.40; 3. Thelma C., $4.85, Time 1:48 3/5.

Lincoln Fields, Chicago, July 6.—Despite a heavy rain and a bit of roughneck riding by Jockey Robert Jones, the day was one of thrills and satisfying sport. The very heavily backed and heavily bet Sancho Panza, giving away eight to one in the first, handled the poundage well and with a fine show of speed cleared by a length.

A great ride by Ambrose on the Mexican colt Bosphorus brought victory in the Kankakee Purse stake for two-year-olds. Jockey Jones pinned the Mexican entry on to the rail as he was coming through with a rush a hundred feet from the wire. Bosphorus seemed hopelessly distanced by the fast-breaking Bunyan at the barrier. Ambrose made a nicely calculated drive, eliciting his mount through on the rail, and with his reserve moved after Bunyan, came through at high speed to Bunyan's shoulder. Here Jones bore right on the faster moving colt, thereby drawing disqualification for Paul Bunyan.

Results are as follows:
First race, six furlongs—1. Gotham, $2.80, $2.10, $2.10; 2. Ball Gee, $2.30, $2.10; 3. Gera B., $2.30, Time, 1:19 1/5.

Second race, six furlongs—1. Little Torch, $8.50, $4.30, $3.00; 2. Jim Bridger, $5.10, $3.90; 3. Huon Pine, $7.70.

Fourth race, six furlongs—1. McCulloch, $13.50, $5.20, $2.90; 2. Odd Fellow II, $3.40, $2.40; 3. Howard Lee, $2.40, Time, 1:20 3/5.

Fifth race, Kankakee Purse; two-year-olds; five and one-half furlongs—1. Bosphorus, $5.90, $2.90, $2.30; 2. Double Heart, $2.90, $2.30; 3. Break 'O' Davis, $3.10, Time, $7.70.

Sixth race, six furlongs—1. Blushing Maiden, $3.80, $2.60, $2.20; 2. Golden Racket, $3.00, $2.90; 3. Cuddle, $3.10, Time, 1:20 3/5.

Seventh race, one mile and one-sixteenth—1. Poor Boy, $4.20, $2.90, $2.50; 2. Indra, $3.80, $2.70; 3. Cleodale, $3.40, Time, 1:57.

Bobby Jones on Golf
From all accounts drifting across the Atlantic, England has unearthed in the person of young T. P. Perkins, very nearly the best amateur she has produced since the war. I have read and heard a host of reports since his triumph last year in the English "close," and on each occasion when he has appeared he has acquitted himself gallantly.

Consistency is about the rarest of golfing virtues. In Great Britain the favored mode of competition makes it even more rare, for the man who can habitually come out on top after meeting a host of opponents in eighteen hole matches must possess the very same of reliability. In competition of that kind one lapse of mind, holes duration may seal the doom of the very best player.

Yet Perkins, playing all matches except the finals at eighteen holes, won the English "close" last year, was runner-up in that event this year, when he had only partially recovered from a serious illness, and in May won the British amateur championship at Prestwick. In addition to these victories he led the amateurs in the "opens" at Sandwich this year and at St. Andrews last. A record of that kind leaves little to be desired in the way of proof of his ability. Considered too that in a country where athletes mature more slowly than in our own, Mr. Perkins has done all this at the age of twenty-three.

Since the war the only consistent winner in Britain has been Sir Ernest Holderness, who was victorious in the Amateur championships of 1922 and 1924. Sir Ernest apparently gives complete little time to golf and hence is not likely to reach the peak of ability to which Perkins may rise in the coming year.

The new champion is described as a rhythmic swinger and a very long hitter. The year just past, according to critics, has seen a marked improvement in his iron play and work around the greens. Mr. Hilton has professed himself unable to find a flaw in Perkins' game, surely a splendid compliment from one who is qualified to judge.

Perkins will be a member of the Walker Cup team this year, and I cannot see how he can be denied the honor of playing the number one position for his side at Chicago. From what I have heard of his play I think he should prove at Brae Burn the most dangerous threat to our amateur title that Great Britain has sent across since Harold Hilton won at Apawamis.

Lincoln Fields, Chicago, July 6.—Despite a heavy rain and a bit of roughneck riding by Jockey Robert Jones, the day was one of thrills and satisfying sport. The very heavily backed and heavily bet Sancho Panza, giving away eight to one in the first, handled the poundage well and with a fine show of speed cleared by a length.

A great ride by Ambrose on the Mexican colt Bosphorus brought victory in the Kankakee Purse stake for two-year-olds. Jockey Jones pinned the Mexican entry on to the rail as he was coming through with a rush a hundred feet from the wire.

Bosphorus seemed hopelessly distanced by the fast-breaking Bunyan at the barrier. Ambrose made a nicely calculated drive, eliciting his mount through on the rail, and with his reserve moved after Bunyan, came through at high speed to Bunyan's shoulder.

Here Jones bore right on the faster moving colt, thereby drawing disqualification for Paul Bunyan.

Results are as follows:
First race, six furlongs—1. Gotham, $2.80, $2.10, $2.10; 2. Ball Gee, $2.30, $2.10; 3. Gera B., $2.30, Time, 1:19 1/5.

Second race, six furlongs—1. Little Torch, $8.50, $4.30, $3.00; 2. Jim Bridger, $5.10, $3.90; 3. Huon Pine, $7.70.

Third race, five and one-half furlongs—1. Christie Flanagan, $8.20, $4.20, $3.20; 2. Sada, $7.60, $3.90; 3. Thunder Call, $9.30, Time, 1:11 4/5.

Fourth race, six furlongs—1. McCulloch, $13.50, $5.20, $2.90; 2. Odd Fellow II, $3.40, $2.40; 3. Howard Lee, $2.40, Time, 1:20 3/5.

Fifth race, Kankakee Purse; two-year-olds; five and one-half furlongs—1. Bosphorus, $5.90, $2.90, $2.30; 2. Double Heart, $2.90, $2.30; 3. Break 'O' Davis, $3.10, Time, $7.70.

Sixth race, six furlongs—1. Blushing Maiden, $3.80, $2.60, $2.20; 2. Golden Racket, $3.00, $2.90; 3. Cuddle, $3.10, Time, 1:20 3/5.

Seventh race, one mile and one-sixteenth—1. Poor Boy, $4.20, $2.90, $2.50; 2. Indra, $3.80, $2.70; 3. Cleodale, $3.40, Time, 1:57.

Bobby Jones on Golf
From all accounts drifting across the Atlantic, England has unearthed in the person of young T. P. Perkins, very nearly the best amateur she has produced since the war. I have read and heard a host of reports since his triumph last year in the English "close," and on each occasion when he has appeared he has acquitted himself gallantly.

Consistency is about the rarest of golfing virtues. In Great Britain the favored mode of competition makes it even more rare, for the man who can habitually come out on top after meeting a host of opponents in eighteen hole matches must possess the very same of reliability. In competition of that kind one lapse of mind, holes duration may seal the doom of the very best player.

Yet Perkins, playing all matches except the finals at eighteen holes, won the English "close" last year, was runner-up in that event this year, when he had only partially recovered from a serious illness, and in May won the British amateur championship at Prestwick. In addition to these victories he led the amateurs in the "opens" at Sandwich this year and at St. Andrews last.

A record of that kind leaves little to be desired in the way of proof of his ability. Considered too that in a country where athletes mature more slowly than in our own, Mr. Perkins has done all this at the age of twenty-three.

Since the war the only consistent winner in Britain has been Sir Ernest Holderness, who was victorious in the Amateur championships of 1922 and 1924. Sir Ernest apparently gives complete little time to golf and hence is not likely to reach the peak of ability to which Perkins may rise in the coming year.

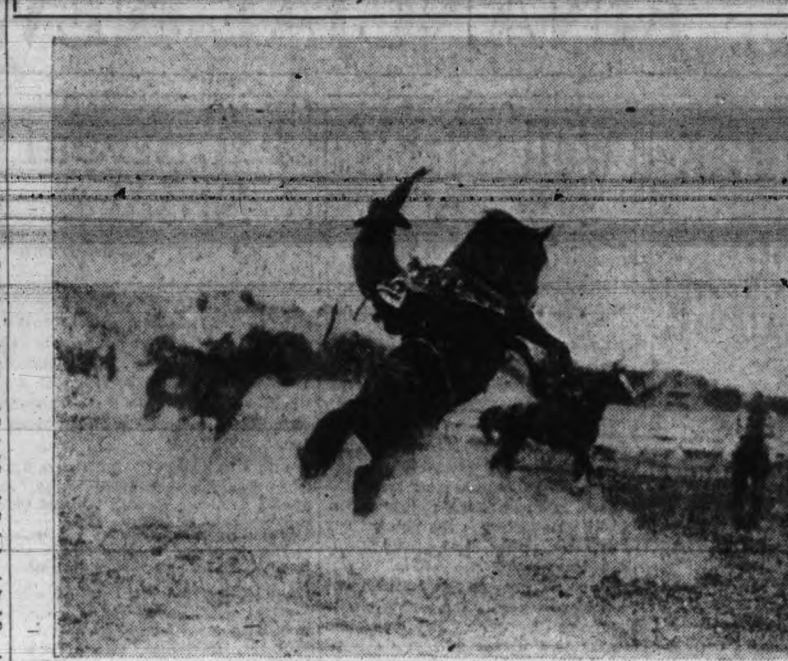

The new champion is described as a rhythmic swinger and a very long hitter. The year just past, according to critics, has seen a marked improvement in his iron play and work around the greens. Mr. Hilton has professed himself unable to find a flaw in Perkins' game, surely a splendid compliment from one who is qualified to judge.

Perkins will be a member of the Walker Cup team this year, and I cannot see how he can be denied the honor of playing the number one position for his side at Chicago. From what I have heard of his play I think he should prove at Brae Burn the most dangerous threat to our amateur title that Great Britain has sent across since Harold Hilton won at Apawamis.

Greatest Sporting Centre To Be Opened in Mexico For International Events

Agua Caliente, Tijuana Hot Springs, Mexico, July 6.—Coinciding with the opening of the second season's racing of the Tijuana Kennel Club at Agua Caliente came announcement of the organization of a club that promises to write the name Agua Caliente in gold letters in the annals of sports all over the world.

The formation and incorporation of the Agua Caliente un lugar de Recreo, which in English means, Agua Caliente Sporting Club, is in the first stages of organization, but an outline of the aims and ambitions of the club and the names of the proposed members and incorporators spells big business in many instances the biggest the sporting world has ever known.

While the club will, in a measure, be a "closed" corporation and a Mexican institution, it is the purpose of the founders to invite into membership the leading lights in all branches of sports in both Southern California and Mexico. The names of those who will figure in the organization of the club are guarantee enough of the pre-organization promise that some of the greatest sporting events in the world will be brought to Agua Caliente.

Prominent among these names are those of James Wood Coffroth, president of the Tijuana Jockey Club, founder of the richest racing stake in the world, the Coffroth Handicap, which next season will have a gross value of approximately $125,000; Jack Dempsey, fifty-fifty partner with the immortal John L. Sullivan in the "pugilistic popularity stakes"; Wirt G. Bowman, president of Agua Caliente and millionaire sportsman of Baja California; Baron Long, vice-president of Agua Caliente, whose experience in sport promotions runs a wide gamut; Gene Normie, Jack Dempsey's ex-manager and successor to Jack Atkin, as manager of "the ring" at the Coffroth racing plant, and Harry Pollok, well-known sporting promoter, who among other activities managed Madison Square Garden for years prior to "Tex" Rickard's regime.

RIVALRY EUROPE'S BEAUTY SPOTS
Agua Caliente, which by the way rivals the show places of Europe in its beauty and splendor, will be splendidly equipped for the great events it is proposed to hold. The swimming pool will be the largest in the world, the golf links as sports as can be built, the five bird traps of the finest, the shooting range to correspond, and the tennis courts will rival the best of Europe and America.

LARGE PRIZES OFFERED
There will be brought to compete at Agua Caliente the world's champions in every class of sport. And the richest prizes in the world will be offered. The first international golf championship, following negotiations already started, it is proposed to hold next January, coincident with the Los Angeles and other California tournaments. A purse of $20,000 or $25,000 will be hung up by the new club for this event.

The co-operation of the Los Angeles and other Southern California golf tournament committees will, of course, be sought in the selection of dates. The Los Angeles $10,000 open tournament will be held next January 4, 5 and 6 and as it will be the last of the big California tournaments, the Agua Caliente will probably follow that.

Another big sporting event in which huge prize money will be distributed will be a revival of the great live-bird tournaments held in New Jersey twenty years ago. This shoot will rival the one now held annually by the Melbourne Gun Club, Tottenham, Victoria, Australia, where $25,000 is hung up in prizes.

The tennis champions of the world will be brought to Agua Caliente to compete for large sums; an international bathing beauty contest with entrants from almost every country will be held annually, and the greatest professional athletes in all branches of track and field sports will be brought from all corners of the globe.

Upsets Feature Annual Regatta
Philadelphia, Pa., July 6.—On the eve of the Olympic rowing trials there were several surprises in the annual People's Day Regatta on the Schuylkill River yesterday.

The Wyandotte boat club of Michigan, national eight-oared champions, lost a sensational senior eight event to the Penn. A.C. just after Paul Costello, of Olympia, staging a comeback, helped Charles McVivian carry the Penn. A.C. colors to victory in the senior doubles.

Costello and McVivian beat the supposedly stronger crews of Gilmore and McCreal, national and Canadian champions, from the Bachelors' Barge Club, and Walter M. Hoover and Charles Coulson, of the Undine Barge Club.

The Penn. A.C. crew was stroked by Chester Turner, former Canadian sculler. Penn's time over the mile and a quarter course was 5:59 3/5.

BULL MARKET ROARS ON WITH GEORGE IN LEAD

Vancouver, July 6.—George Copper was the feature stock of the bull market on the Vancouver Exchange today, selling up to a high of 5.10 from a close at 4.50 Thursday afternoon. Opening at 4.50, it reached its high mark about mid-session, when it then receded to a close at 4.75-5.00.

Reports that drilling work on an enlarged programme, is now under way at the property and has been started under personal direction of the officials of the Consolidated company who are now visiting George Copper and Big Missouri are one of the main factors in the rise. A total of over 3,000 shares of the stock was bought at the advancing market this morning.

Big Missouri, on the other hand, weakened somewhat, opening at 40 and selling to a low and close at 45, from an unchanged to a close at 15.40, the downward trend was steady and gradual.

Pend Oreille was again traded in heavily from the opening at 15.00 unchanged to a close at 15.40, the downward trend was steady and gradual.

Premier at 220 and Porter at 61 showed little change. Home Oil held steady at 290 to 300.

Cork Province ranged between 31½ to 32, last transactions being at the high figure.

Grandview shaded back to a close at 38½, with only moderate trading, but Lucky Jim was firm at 31 to 32.

Ruth Hope held at 28 to 29, last sales being the higher figure.

VULTURES

Where exactly to end the line of Hawks and begin the line of Vultures is a difficult matter. The Great Lammergeier or Bearded Vulture (one is shown above) is more Vulture than Hawk yet it has the head and neck feathered as no Vulture should. The Lammergeier is a magnificent bird, 42 and more inches long. The name means "lamb vulture."

By N.E.A. Through Special Permission of the Publishers of The Book of Knowledge. Copyright, 1923-25.

Sad stories of the practices of Lammergeiers are told. The great birds are said to have carried away babies while mothers worked in the fields.

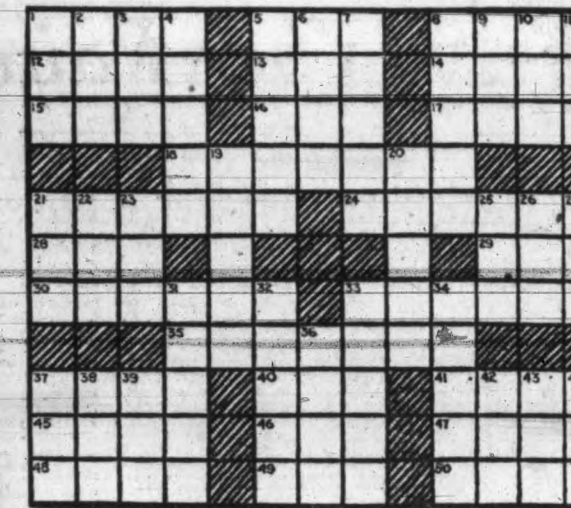

The Vultures themselves are hideous of aspect. They are weak of feet and cannot carry their prey but must gorge on the ground where they find it.

Vultures are the jackals and hyenas of their order, living chiefly on filth, yet they do the world a service, clearing the earth of reeking impurity. The artist has sketched here the quaint Secretary Bird of Africa. Though a Vulture, this bird is not repulsive. The feathers at the back of his head are supposed to look like a quill pen stuck behind the ear. (To Be Continued.)

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

To-morrow's Horoscope

SATURDAY, JULY 7, 1928

Astrologers read this day as a day of strong government in which benefic aspects prevail.

The early hours encourage all lines of merchandising and advertising should bring much trade. Bankers and financiers will profit from an event that causes a tremendous demand for foreign news. Newspapers and magazines will benefit greatly through events that stir the nation and demonstrate the place of the United States among world powers, the seers prophesy.

Authors of every sort will make much money in writing at this time, for they will harvest from fields of work, seldom entered, astrologers foretell. There is an auspicious sign for all who are engaged in any sort of constructive work. The stars encourage development along the most scientific and well studied lines. Uncle Sam is to become the patron of the arts in foreign lands as well as in the United States. It is foretold. This is believed to be a lucky day for signing legal papers, especially if they contain business contracts of any sort.

Persons whose birthdate it is may expect a prosperous year. Money will come unexpectedly to many. Children born on this day probably will be keen of mind and quick of movement. Subjects of this sign are usually valuable employees.

B.C. PRODUCTS WEEK WILL AID B.C. INDUSTRY

Special Displays By Stores on Week of July 19-25 Will Be Made

L. F. Champion, Field Secretary of Products Bureau, Visits City

Stores and store windows with displays of B.C. products during B.C. products week, July 19 to 25, will be decorated in orange and green, according to L. F. Champion, field secretary of the B.C. Products Bureau, who is in the city today.

"It behooves every citizen," says Mr. Champion, "to stop when he sees these colors, to examine the nature of the product, to make a strong mental note of its existence and, when next required, to buy this article."

MANY STORES TO CO-OPERATE
The majority of the retail stores throughout the Province will lend their display space to the exhibit of British Columbia products for the week, Mr. Champion explained.

"This week is not staged by the retail merchant in an endeavor to sell the particular line of goods on display, nor is it prompted by the manufacturer of the articles shown. It is a week dedicated by the Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce in the Province to present to our citizens as representative a display as possible of the numerous commodities grown and manufactured by our own people and one of us with the high quality of these products, and above all, the wisdom of protecting our own interests by supporting our own industries," he continued.

"We want to develop and hasten the time when our population will be doubled and trebled, and insure a productive field for our children wherein they can remain and prosper. We cannot do this by remitting the greater portion of our purchasing budget to foreign centres. We have not yet reached the stage of development where we can afford to build up other cities and countries at the expense of our own."

WONDERFUL PRODUCTS
"Our lumber and mill products are unequalled. Our fisheries are unequalled. Our mineral wealth is attracting world-wide attention. Our fruit and farm products are welcome in any market. And our factories are turning out quality and price with any. Why not take advantage of these many bounties that are our own, and mean so much for our future?"

"The citizens should think it over and carefully study every display made during B.C. Products Week," said Mr. Champion, "and devote a portion of each day in familiarizing yourself with our many resources of the province. This is not to be done by the store, but by the individual citizen."

"Don't buy elsewhere what you can already produce at home. It is poor business."

BRITISH PARTY TO SEE PRAIRIE GRAIN HARVEST

Canadian National Railways in Charge of Tour Under Scholarship Plan

Under the auspices of the Empire Free Travel and Scholarship Fund, sponsored by the Allied Newspapers of Great Britain, the Cunard Line and the Canadian National have arranged for a party of fifty British school boys and girls to tour the Dominion this Summer.

The Canadian National Railways officials are arranging the itinerary, and it is confidently believed that the children will make a trip which they will remember for the rest of their lives. The first few days will be spent exploring the Maritime Provinces, including Prince Edward Island.

Some time will be spent in Montreal and Toronto, and other centres of population in Eastern Canada. Their excursions, the Governor-General, Lord Willingdon will entertain the party at Rideau Hall.

On the journey West the party will travel through the heart of the great prairie, and other centres of population in Western Canada. Their excursions, the Governor-General, Lord Willingdon will entertain the party at Rideau Hall.

From Winnipeg west they will follow much the same route as did Alexander McKenzie and other explorers in the days long past before the railway was ever thought of. In the heart of the Rocky Mountains, at Jasper, they will remain for two days exploring the trails and valleys of this magnificent natural playground, the world's greatest game sanctuary, almost as large as Devon, Cornwall and Somerset combined. Then, down the picturesque and ever-changing Fraser valley, skirting the dry belt, a section wherein is produced some of the most luscious fruit of the Dominion.

Just before reaching the Coast the train will carry them through the rich agricultural lands of the Lower Fraser Valley. Suddenly coming to tide water they will touch the suburbs of Vancouver. There they will spend the night, and then, through which in recent years much of the export wheat from the Western prairies has passed on its way to the markets they will have a glimpse of the great herd of buffalo maintained at Wainwright Park by the Dominion Government. Taking a somewhat different route from that which they followed on the Western journey they will have an opportunity of visiting some of the superb orchards and fruit lands of the famous Niagara Peninsula.

A visit will also be paid to Port Arthur and Port William, twin cities at the head of the Great Lakes, whose importance as grain shipping points is known the world over, and to the Muskoka Lakes. The Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto, the world's greatest annual exhibition of agricultural and manufactured products, will provide an interesting day. The Niagara Peninsula, the Ontario Agricultural College will be seen, followed by the Thousand Islands and Lachine Rapids' cruise.

The Allied Newspapers of Great Britain, the powerful newspaper group under whose auspices this Empire educational scheme has been launched, is the largest newspaper group in the world to-day. The chairman of the company is Sir William Berry, and the vice-president, Sir Gomer Berry.

The papers controlled by this group include among others The Daily Sketch of London, Manchester Daily Dispatch and Evening Chronicle, Glasgow Daily Record and Evening News, North Mail and Newcastle Evening Chronicle, Cardiff Western Mail, South Wales Evening Express and Evening Mail of Cardiff, Bristol Times and Mirror.

The Sunday papers controlled by the group include The Sunday Graphic and The Sunday Times of London, The Empire News, Sunday Chronicle, World's Pictorial, Manchester News, Glasgow Sunday Mail and Newcastle Sunday Sun. In addition the group publishes some 140 weekly papers appealing to all classes of the community. There are few homes in England into which some one of the Allied Newspaper publications does not enter.

AT THE THEATRES

REGINALD DENNY STARS IN COMEDY NOW AT VARIETY

Three winners of Universal beauty contests appear in minor roles in "Take It From Me," the latest production starring Reginald Denny, which is the present feature attraction at the Variety Theatre. They are Dorothy Gulliver of Salt Lake City, Joan Alden of Chicago, and Dorothy Kitchen of New York City. All three were adjudged the most beautiful girls in their respective cities in contests staged by Universal Pictures Corporation, and won trips to Hollywood and contracts to play in pictures as a result. All three show great promise of becoming future screen stars.

FAMOUS COMIC STRIP HERO IS AT PLAYHOUSE

Alice White, who figures prominently in the cast of First National's feature screen comedy, "The Battle of Britain," is the star of the Playhouse Theatre. "Harold Teen," was once a stenographer in a film studio. She thought she could act. Ever since she has been a star, who persisted until they gave her a test, just to keep her from bothering them—this is a success!

DOMINION STAR MASTERS ENGLISH IN TWO YEARS

The average English vocabulary of approximately 3,000 words, mastered by the time the better class of Americans have reached their majority, has been accomplished by Greta Garbo, famous Swedish film star, in approximately two years.

Placed under contract to appear in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer pictures, two years ago by Louis B. Mayer, head of the studio, Miss Garbo began the study of English on the ship en route from Sweden. By the time she had reached the United States she could understand enough to take film direction in English. Pantomime, of course, had to play a part in making her understand what was wanted.

Miss Garbo, who is starred in "The Divine Woman," now being played at the Dominion Theatre, solved the problem of how to learn English in the shortest time possible by deliberately setting herself the task of learning a minimum of five English words a day.

CAPITOL THEATRE SHOWING SPLENDID PICTURE THIS WEEK

Lloyd Bacon, director of "The Lion and the Mouse" at the Warner Bros. production with May McAvoy and Lionel Barrymore, now at the Capitol Theatre, was born in San Jose, Cal., thirty-seven years ago. He was educated in San Francisco and Santa Clara College, Santa Clara, Cal. His stage experience began in 1907 when he played the part of the Nubian in Oscar Wilde's "Salome." He had experience in stock and repertory, and had done some work in pictures as actor and director, when in 1918 he joined the navy. After discharge from the service he returned to Hollywood. In 1921 he became associated with Lloyd Hamilton as his director, and after three years went to Sennett where he directed Turpin and others.

This week the stage attractions are exceptionally entertaining, and include Miss Orle McLaughlin, former star of the famous "Our Gang" comedies, presenting in person favorite dances of Mae Murray, Gilda Gray and the "It" girl, Clara Bow. Other attractions on this same vaudeville bill are the Cosmopolitan Trio, in a special song and dance revue, and Gladys Hershberger, soprano, in song selections. Harold Bechtel, the singing M.C., and the Capitol Orchestra complete the bill.

FINE STORY OF COWBOY LIFE IS AT COLUMBIA THEATRE

Ken Maynard, the "ridin' fool" of Western pictures, is the star of "The Red Raiders," the Charles B. Rogers production for the First National now at the Columbia Theatre. It is Maynard's first of a new series and is heralded as the best of the handsome cowboy hero has yet appeared in.
